Fall 2011

Your financial solution.

member SPOTLIGHT

Mr. James Webb has been a member of Telco Plus Credit Union since 1958. He says, "Telco Plus has always been good to me. That's why I want my family members to join." Mr. Webb has accounts for all of his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The reason is simple. "It's a great place to save your money." He expressed that opening accounts for his family was his way of building and ensuring their future. He wants his family to have financial security and he finds that at Telco Plus. At the young age of 83, Mr. Webb has seen the credit union go through a lot of changes and through it all, he is thrilled to call himself a member. "I encourage everyone I meet to be a member", he says. When asked how we've been his financial solution, he says "They've helped me with loans and CD's, and I've had my checking account there for years." "Telco Plus has been in business for 60 years; I've been with them for 53 of those years. There's no better place for your family to be."
